

Privacy Notice

Introduction

This is Cedar Lodge Care Home's Privacy Notice.

As part of the services we offer, we are required to process personal data about our staff, our service users and, in some instances, the friends or relatives of our service users and staff. "Processing" can mean collecting, recording, organising, storing, sharing or destroying data.

We are committed to being transparent about why we need your personal data and what we do with it. This information is set out in this privacy notice. It also explains your rights when it comes to your data.

If you have any concerns or questions please email Cedar Lodge's Data Protection Lead, James Hunt, on info@cedarlodgecarehome.com or call us on 01386 446871.

Service Users

What data do we have?

So that we can provide a safe and professional service, we need to keep certain records about you. We may process the following types of data:

- Your basic details and contact information e.g. your name, address, date of birth and next of kin;
- Your financial details e.g. details of how you pay us for your care or your funding arrangements.

We also record the following data which is classified as "special category":

- Health and social care data about you, which might include both your physical and mental health data.
- We may also record data about your race, ethnic origin, sexual orientation or religion.

Why do we have this data?

We need this data so that we can provide high-quality care and support. By law, we need to have a lawful basis for processing your personal data.

We process your data because:

- We have a legal obligation to do so – generally under the Health and Social Care Act 2012 or Mental Capacity Act 2005.

We process your special category data because

- It is necessary due to social security and social protection law (generally this would be in safeguarding instances);
- It is necessary for us to provide and manage social care services;
- We are required to provide data to our regulator, the Care Quality Commission (CQC), as part of our public interest obligations.

We may also process your data with your consent. If we need to ask for your permission, we will offer you a clear choice and ask that you confirm to us that you consent. We will also explain clearly to you what we need the data for and how you can withdraw your consent at any time.

Where do we process your data?

So that we can provide you with high quality care and support we need specific data. This is collected from or shared with:

1. You or your legal representative(s);
2. Third parties.

We do this face to face, via phone, via email, via our website, via post and via application forms.

Third parties are organisations we might lawfully share your data with. These include:

- Other parts of the health and care system such as local hospitals, the GP, the pharmacy, social workers, clinical commissioning groups, and other health and care professionals;
- The Local Authority;
- Your family or friends – with your permission;
- Organisations we have a legal obligation to share information with i.e. for safeguarding, the CQC;
- The police or other law enforcement agencies if we have to by law or court order.

National Data Opt Out

At this time, we do not share any data for planning or research purposes for which the national data opt-out would apply. We review all of the confidential service user information we process on an annual basis to see if this is used for research and planning purposes. If it is, then individuals can decide to stop their information being shared for this purpose. You can find out more information at <https://www.nhs.uk/your-nhs-data-matters/>.

Staff

What data do we have?

So that we can provide a safe and professional service, we need to keep certain records about you. We may record the following types of data:

- Your basic details and contact information e.g. your name, proof of identity and address and right to work status, date of birth, National Insurance number, next of kin, profile photo;
- Your financial details e.g. details so that we can pay you, insurance, pension and tax details;
- Your training records.
- A record of your conversation with prospective customers when they phone Cedar Lodge's room enquiries phone number.

We also record the following data which is classified as "special category":

- Health and social care data about you, which might include both your physical and mental health data – we will only collect this if it is necessary for us to know as your employer, e.g. fit notes or in order for you to claim statutory maternity/paternity pay;

As part of your application you may – depending on your job role – be required to undergo a Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check. Once we have seen this certificate, we will record the following detail from the DBS certificate.

- The date of issue of the check
- The full name and date of birth of the subject
- The type of check requested
- Whether the children's or adults barred list was checked and the outcome
- The position for which the check was requested
- The unique reference number of the check
- The details of the employment decision
- Any additional information that may be require periodic checks to be made.

We will also retain the first third of the certificate for 12 months or until such a time as it is viewed by a CQC inspector.

Why do we have this data?

We require this data so that we can contact you, pay you and make sure you receive the training and support you need to perform your job. By law, we need to have a lawful basis for processing your personal data.

We process your data because

- We have a legal obligation under UK employment law;
- We have a legitimate interest in processing your data – for example, we provide data about your training to Skills for Care's National Minimum Data Set, this allows Skills for Care to produce reports about workforce planning.
- We are required to provide data to our regulator, the Care Quality Commission (CQC), as part of our public interest obligations.
- For training and quality assurance purposes.

We process your special category data because

- It is necessary for us to process requests for sick pay or maternity pay.

If we request your criminal records data it is because we have a legal obligation to do this due to the type of work you do. This is set out in the Data Protection Act 2018 and the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975. We do not keep a record of your criminal records information (if any).

We may also process your data with your consent. If we need to ask for your permission, we will offer you a clear choice and ask that you confirm to us that you consent. We will also explain clearly to you what we need the data for and how you can withdraw your consent.

Where do we process your data?

As your employer we need specific data. This is collected from or shared with:

3. You or your legal representative(s);
4. Third parties.

We do this face to face, via phone, via email, via post, via application forms, and via apps.

Third parties are organisations we have a legal reason to share your data with. These include:

- Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC);
- The Home Office

- Our pension schemes (NEST)
- Our external payroll provider;
- Organisations we have a legal obligation to share information with i.e. for safeguarding, the CQC;
- The police or other law enforcement agencies if we have to by law or court order.
- The West Midlands Care Association (for DBS applications)

Friends/Relatives

What data do we have?

- Your basic details and contact information e.g. your name and address.
- Your phone number and a record of your conversation when you phone our room enquiries phone number.

Why do we have this data?

By law, we need to have a lawful basis for processing your personal data.

We process your data because we have a legitimate business interest in holding next of kin and lasting power of attorney information about the individuals who use our service and keeping emergency contact details for our staff. We may also process your data for staff training and quality assurance purposes.

We may also process your data with your consent. If we need to ask for your permission, we will offer you a clear choice and ask that you confirm to us that you consent. We will also explain clearly to you what we need the data for and how you can withdraw your consent.

Our Website

In order to provide you with the best experience while using our website, we process some data about you. For further details, see our specific website privacy notice, which is located in the footer of our website www.cedarlodgecarehome.com.

Your rights

The data that we keep about you is your data and we ensure that we keep it confidential and that it is used appropriately. You have the following rights when it comes to your data:

1. You have the right to request a copy of all of the data we keep about you. Generally, we will not charge for this service;
2. You have the right to ask us to correct any data we have which you believe to be inaccurate or incomplete. You can also request that we restrict all processing of your data while we consider your rectification request;
3. You have the right to ask that we erase any of your personal data which is no longer necessary for the purpose we originally collected it for. We retain our data in line with the abbreviated code and guidance on Digital Care Hub based on the NHS Records Management Code of Practice – A guide to the management of health and care records. <<https://www.digitalcarehub.co.uk/data-protection-and-cyber-security/records-management-abbreviated-code-of-practice-and-guidance-for-adult-social-care-providers/appendix-1-retention-schedule/>>
4. You may also request that we restrict processing if we no longer require your personal data for the purpose we originally collected it for, but you do not wish for it to be erased.
5. You can ask for your data to be erased if we have asked for your consent to process your data. You can withdraw consent at any time – please contact us via the contact details at the top of this policy.
6. If we are processing your data as part of our legitimate interests as an organisation or in order to complete a task in the public interest, you have the right to object to that processing. We will restrict all processing of this data while we look into your objection.

You may need to provide adequate information for our staff to be able to identify you, for example, a passport or driver's licence. This is to make sure that data is not shared with the wrong person inappropriately. We will always respond to your request as soon as possible and at the latest within one month.
